Message:

"The Class of "67" — this designation will long remain with you, not only as a group but as individuals. For twelve years you have prepared for this day. In your preparation the faculty has been able to provide you only with a "bag of tools." How you use these tools will determine the level of success you are able to achieve.

Remember always that continued progress, law and order, faith in God and in others, peace on earth, and all those eternal verities that bring lasting happiness, begin with you. As you go, so goes your community, you nation, and your world.

May each of you find the success you are seeking.

The 1967 Accolade is the sixteenth such publication in the history of Lynwood High School. It portrays the school year 1966-67 in pictures and text and will recall memories for all students, particularly those of the graduating class.

This yearbook represents a great deal of effort on the part of the Accolade Staff. My thanks, and I am sure the thanks of the student body go to this dedicated group who spent many hours after school to make the 1967 Accolade possible.

To each member of the Class of 1967 may I offer my heartfelt congratulations. You have worked hard to attain this significant milestone and I consider it a privilege and pleasure to have been able to watch your progress and to share some of your experiences with you these past years.

May the lessons you have learned and the activities in which you have participated cause you to become involved in those pursuits that not only bring success and happiness to you but make our country an even better place in which to live.

Clifton Nordgaard Senior Class Councilor

Congratulations on the many fine achievements of the Class of 1967. We are proud of you and the records you have established. Taking the spirit of adventure and achievement with you, shake hands with the future and go forth to explore your environment. A problemtorn world needs your courage, your vision, your youthful enthusiasm. Best wishes to each one of you.

CLASS OF 1967

On June 15, we, the class of 1967, will say "Sayonara" to our beloved Castle. We will be leaving our friends, faculty and all the momentous activities of these past four years. We realize, however, that we will take with us the knowledge and experience acquired from the memorable school days at Lynwood High School.

Taking the big step from junior to senior high school, we gained much guidance from our first class president, Greg Thompson. We saw as Freshmen a new world of learning and social activities. Contributing to tradition of the Castle, we sponsored the Saint Patrick's Day Dance, "Leprechaun Leap."

As expectant Sophomores, we entered another year at Lynwood under the leadership of Greg Lee. For the new Freshmen, we sponsored a Freshman Welcome Dance. We greatly boosted the class treasury by selling quarter pound bars of chocolate. This money gave us a head-start on establishing an adequate treasury for next year's Prom. With profits in mind again, we sold booster ribbons during the football season. Our year was saddened when the friendly, warm figure of Mrs. Kathryn Doll disappeared from the campus. She was a favorite Sophomore English teacher who helped the class and its activities. Climaxing our first two years at Lynwood High School, we ordered our class rings.

President Rod Childress led us through an active year as Juniors. First of all, we anxiously received our rings. To strengthen our funds, we continued selling booster ribbons. Displaying an interest in the campus, we conducted a clean-up campaign. To climax our third year, we sponsored the Junior-Senior Prom, "A Knight's Enchantment," held at the International Hotel at the Los Angeles Airport.

Again Rod Childress presided over the class activities, this time to be the last. As seniors we entered the school year to enjoy the privileges reserved for "Seniors Only." We were honored to welcome our foreign exchange student from Ceylon, Shanti Wijearagah. Our last Homecoming season was set off by the crowning of the 1966-1967 queen, radiant Patty Vest. We then continued the traditional scene by sponsoring the Christmas Dance, "Mistletoe Magic." Later, the All-School Play, "Pillow Talk," was presented to the students, facuty, and parents. We were also fortunate to enjoy a new, special casual day on campus—"May Daze." Next, the Prom took its place as a memorable, elegant occasion. Finally, we saw the beginning of a wonderful week starting with the fun of the Senior Picnic at Irvine Park, continuing through the serenity of Baccalaureate and Commencement, and ending with the excitement of the All-Night Party. This week was highlighted by the surprise and thrill of receiving the long-awaited "Accolade."

Now as we take a last glimpse of Lynwood High School as students, we feel much gratitude and respect for the helpful advice we have received from our dedicated counselors, Mrs. Agnes Jones and Mr. Cliften Nordgaard. We also thank the entire faculty and administration for their patience in teaching us. At the end of our Senior year, we, the Class of 1967, say "Sayonara" to all the friends and faculty of four never-to-be-forgotten years.

Typical Lady

Lovely Rosemary Volpp has been chosen as the Typical Lady for 1967. During her four years at Lynwood High she has been active in many campus clubs and has shown her scholastic abilities by being in accelerated classes. During her senior year she has held offices in many clubs among them Ducettes where she was Vice President, Castelettes where she was President, and Roundtablers where she was secretary. She was president of the Drill Team and a member of Class Council. Her classmates voted her DAR Good Citizen Award, best dressed senior girl and most likely to succeed. Other honors Rosemary has received are Homecoming Princess and CSF Sealbearer. Rosemary's plans for the future include attending Whittier College in the fall and we are sure that whatever she does, she will succeed. Congratulations, Rosemary from the Class of 1967!

ROSEMARY VOLPP

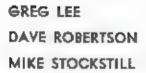

TOM BIRD

Typical Knight

Tom Bird has been chosen Typical Knight for 1967. During his four years at the Castle, Tom has been in the accelerated program. This year he became a CSF Sealbearer and one of the Top Eleven seniors. This year he has also been the Vice President of the Senior Class. Tom is very active in campus activities and has been President of Key Club and President of Roundtablers (the school honor society.) He lettered in Varsity Basketball also. Tom's plans for the future include attending the University of Caifornia at San Diego and becoming a doctor. We are sure that whatever Tom attempts he will succeed. Congratulations, Tom from the Class of 1967!

Top Eleven

TOP ELEVEN — K. Partlow, B. Gookmiller, L. Nordholm, F. Kossler, T. Bird, D. Mandeville, N. Phillips, G. Worthington, G. Lee, S. Smith, A. Braves.

The top eleven seniors are headed by Valedictorian Greg Lee and Salutatorian Bruce Goodmiller. Each of these students have shown superior grades throughout their four years at Lynwood High. Congratulations to these fine students from the Class of 1967!

Gifted Grades

Greg Lee, having continually achieved top grades in his four years at Lynwood High, has been awarded the highest honor possible in the class of 1967, that of Valedictorian. Greg has been accepted at the University of California at San Diego, where he is majoring in Oceanography. After college, he hopes to do graduate work at Scripps Institute of Oceanography "If," as Greg states, "I don't get drafted!"

Reach Recognition

After four years of arduous work at Lynwood, Bruce Good-miller has been rewarded for his outstanding achievements by being selected as the Salutatorian for the class of '67. Bruce plans to attend U.C.L.A. where he has been accepted with honors, and hopes to do graduate study at an eastern school. He will major in political science and aspires to a career in law, politics, or foreign service.

The CSF Sealbearers are outstanding seniors who have achieved CSF standing for six out of eight semesters during their high school career. The DAR award winner, Rosemary Volpp, was voted by her classmates because of her outstanding service to school and community.

A Knight

This was truly a night of enchantment for the Queen and her court. They will rein over our Castle during '66-'67. With a lot of tears and smiles they met their subjects for a wonderful Homecoming Ball. The glamor and lights of our ball showed the true spirit of Lynwood.

SALUTE TO CHRISTMAS

The annual Christmas Dance, sponsored by the Senior Class, was entitled "Mistletoe Magic." It was held on Friday, December 16 at Bateman Hall with the attire of semi-Formal. This dance held many memories; the mistletoe, the white Christmas tree, Santa Claus, the band. Many students came to enjoy this dance and had a good time.

Moments to Remember

WILL WE EVER FORGET:

The "ripped" daisy.

The flooded locker room after the Lynwood Relays.

The night John Law walked in on Vaunetta and Iron Mike at Chico's.

The double chaperone at Redlands.

The synthetic mashed potatoes 'n' plastic gravy at the Redlands banquet.

Mr. Wells the basketball player.

Al Pavich's Famous sardine and burrito dinner.

Terry Roese finding out she made cheerleader.

The big romance between The Midnight Skulker and "litter Snowflake."

The "clean in" at Lynwood High.

The "knees" in Mr. Higgins' first period class.

The lovely Castlette initiates during initiation.

May Daze at Lynwood Hgh.

The all school play "Pillow Talk."

The musical "Trial by Jury."

The peanutbutter sandwich on Mr. Alexander's board.

The student body officers running unopposed.

Getting the yearbook out.

Miss Purvin's speech classes.

The wonderful rainy day and the dry lunch area.

The Senior Square being painted blue.

The Senior government test.

How long the seniors had to wait for their Senior pictures.

The Letterman Initiation.

The Letterman vs Faculty Basketball Game.

The Girls in Black, Wow!

Our Terrific Baseball Team.

THAT WILL BE THE DAY WHEN:

When the yearbook is done on the first due date.

There's water in the Senior Fountain.

The machines at the lunch area give the right change.

Smoke clears in the rest rooms.

There is another class of '67.

There are no more finals.

We get a cafeteria.

A school tax passes.

Someone doesn't cry at Homecoming.

REMEMBER THOSE EMBARRASSING MOMENTS:

The lovely girls on Castlette's initiation day.

When Carol Burns started cheering "Hi, Burbank, Hi!" at the Paramount game.

When the students asked Miss Purvin what she was doing in the teacher's chair.

THE SENIORS WILL ALWAYS REMEMBER:

Homecoming,

The Talent Assembly,

Baccalaureate.

Commencement and,

The All Night Party.

WILL THE TEACHER EVER LIVE DOWN:

The Donkey Basketball Game.

Mrs. West's Sea Gull

Mr. Harr's donkey forgetting its manners.

Mr. Skolnick's class discussions.

The article about embarrassing moments of teachers.

Mr. Beno's "Lost Safari" field trip.

The bird that kept coming back to Mr. Benson's room.

Mrs. Rydeen and MacBeth.

"We do."

"Come to me my love"

"Mm- mm- m----"

"She loves me yeah yeah---"

"-And a good judge too-"

In Appreciation

The Co-Editors consider it an honor and a privilege to have been selected in compiling the Accolade for 1967. The production of this yearbook has required many hours of hard work and the help of a competent staff. For their help in making this Accolade possible we would like to thank...

Mr. Eletto, our advisor for his much needed assistance and encouragement.

Alfred and Fabris Studio for their fine photography.

Mr. Cannicott, our publisher, who worked with us until the book was finally ready and printed.

Gred Edmondson and Rod Melville for their help with photography and action shots. For two years Greg has willingly given of his time to carry on the Lynwood spirit in supplying us with photos.

Lisa Hansen who assisted Dorothy on Administration and Sports.

Mary Camp and Cindy Gurley who were responsible for the Classes section.

Loa Brown, Laura Dalin, Jennifer Meeks, and Shanti Wijearajah for their fine work on the Organization section.

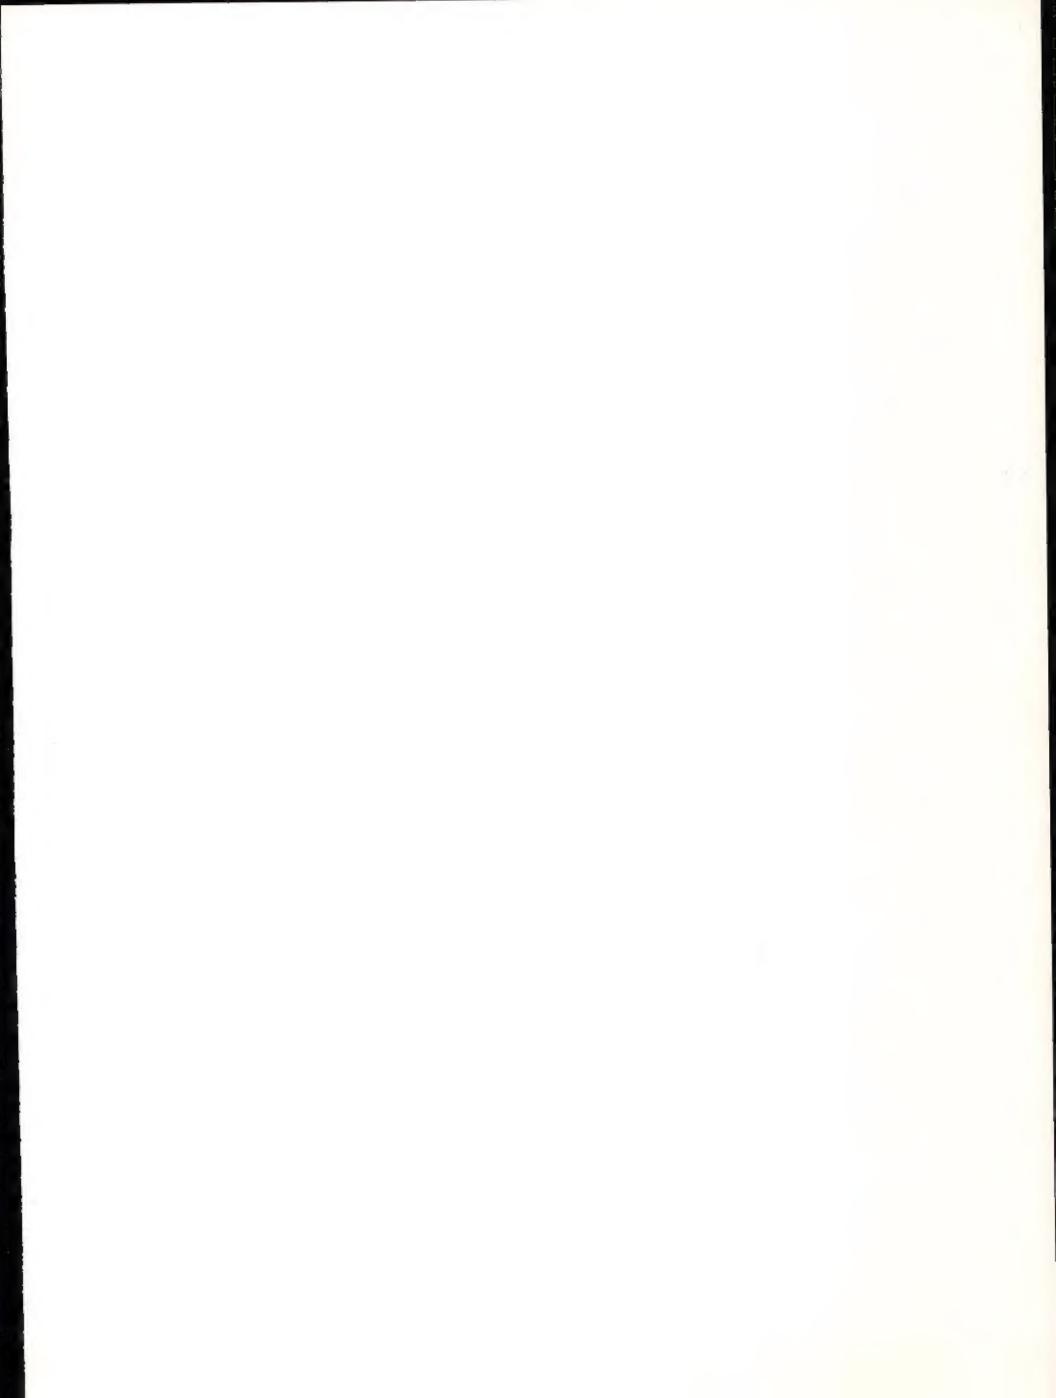

Gail Edmondson, Nora Lawson, Liz Voss, and Cindy Cole for their fine work on the Activities section.

Doug Hescox and Rod Melville for their fine work on the Sports section.

Judy Nichols, who was responsible for securing all advertising in the Accolade.

To all those mentioned above and anyone else who helped in any way to make this Accolade possible we sincerely give our thanks.

LaDonna Gurley Dorothy McCarthy Co-Editors
